

Irish Translations: Bua na Cainte; May 18th- 29th.

An Seomra Leapa: page 132 ar an = on the, in aice leis= beside, faoin= under, sa= in, sa tarraiceán= in the drawer, ar an gcófra= on the cupboard, sa vardrús= in the wardrobe. Cá bhfuil= where is?

Gach Maidin= Every Morning: Page 133) Buaileann an chlog= the clock rings, éirím= I get up, Bainim mo phitseámaí díom= I take off my clothes, Ním m'aghaidh agus mo lámha= I wash my face and hands. Cuirim mo chuid eadaí orm= I get dressed, Ithim mo bhricfeasta= I eat my breakfast, Rithim ar scoil= I run to school, Imrím cluiche peile le mo chairde sa chlós- I play football with my friends in the yard, Faighim cúl= I get a goal, Bíonn gliondar croí orm= I am delighted.

Chuir me= I put, Bhain mé= I took off, Rith mé= I ran, D'ith mé= I ate, Ghlan mé= I cleaned, Chan mé= I sang.

Inné= yesterday, gach lá= every day.

Ag Imirt Peile sa Chlós ar Maidin= playing football in the yard in the morning: page 134 sa chlós= in the yard, an-te= very hot, ag cur allais= sweating, in aice le= beside, Chuala na páistí an clog= the children heard the bell, Cá bhfuil?= where is, Bhí a hata ina bhéal= her hat was in his mouth, Rith Niamh ina dhiaidh= Niamh ran after him, Fuair sí a hata= she got her hat, Bhí na páistí eile sna trithí ag gáire= the other children were in stitches laughing.

Cá raibh?= where was?

Cén fáth?= why?

Cár?= where?

Inné= yesterday, gach lá= every day, amárach= tomorrow.

Bhain mé mo chóta díom= I took off my coat. (page 135)

Mé= me, tú= you, sé= he sí= she, sinn/-eamar= we, sibh= you plural, siad= they. Mo= my, do= your, a = his/hers/theirs, ár= our, bhur= your plural.

Galrollóir= bulldozer. (page 136)

Ag teacht= coming, as an tslí= out of the way, Imigí= go away, teithigí= flee, rithigí= run away.

Spraoi le Briathra: page 140;

Bhris mé= I broke, Ghlan mé= I cleaned, Chuir mé= I put, Bhain= I took off, Sheinn mé= I played, Chan mé= I sang, Thóg mé= I took.

